Alpha is a retreat designated to foster and enrich relationships in all areas of life. Alpha Adult Retreats are for adults 18 years and older. Alpha Teen Retreats are for teens in 11th and 12th grade of high school. Regular retreats are held at designated retreat centers in the Orlando area in the spring and fall each year. The retreat staff is comprised of a priest and trained Alpha personnel. Retreats are open to those interested in emotional and spiritual growth and who desire to deepen their relationships with themselves, with God, and with others.

Commonly Asked Questions:

When is the retreat? March 12-14, 2010 (San Pedro Center)

What is the length of the retreat? The retreat begins on Friday evening at 7 p.m. and ends Sunday evening around 5:30 p.m. Closing mass begins at approximately 4:30 p.m. Sunday.

Can I miss part of the retreat? No

What if I can't commit to the entire time frame? Due to the nature of the retreat, you must be present for the entire weekend from opening activities on Friday evening to closing activity on Sunday.

What does the retreat cost cover? The retreat cost ($85.00) covers lodging, supplies, and meals (B/L/D on Saturday, B/L on Sunday). Limited financial assistance may be available with advance notice of request.

What happens on an Alpha Retreat? Small group sharing, individual reflection time, group activities, presentations, prayer and liturgical celebrations are all part of the Alpha experience.

What kind of retreat is Alpha? Alpha is specifically designed to be an interactive, experiential retreat.

Who are the priests who work with the Alpha program? At the present time, the priests working directly with the Alpha program are Fr. Ralph DuWell, Fr. Leo Hodges, and Fr. Kent Walker. Many other priests in the Orlando diocese also support and assist the Alpha program.

How do I sign up? Complete the attached application form and send completed form with check payable to Alpha two weeks prior to the retreat or register online at our website www.alphapeerministry.com. All payments should be mailed to the Alpha post office box: Alpha, PO Box 780003, Orlando, FL 32878-0003. Application is not complete until receipt of payment.
